Structural Design Pattern: Façade

The job of façade is to ensure that multiple tasks of 1 process happen using All-OR-Nothing approach.

Instead of making controller call everything, where it might not even know the sequence properly. Hence façade can help controller and define proper sequence.